Article 1
PRECAUTIONARY MEASURES - REQUIRED

617.1.1  Locks - doors - removed - appliance not in use
No person shall leave, keep or permit upon any lands or in or upon any premises occupied by him/her or under his/her control, in a place accessible to children, any ice box, refrigerator, freezer or similar container not then being used for the purpose for which it was manufactured or produced, having any door or doors which when closed cannot be easily opened from the inside, without first removing such door or doors and taking such other adequate precautionary measures as may be required to prevent any person from being trapped in such ice box, refrigerator, freezer or similar container or in any part thereof.
617.1.2 Locks - doors - removed - prior to disposal
No person shall dispose of or abandon upon any lands or premises of another, in any place accessible to children, any ice box, refrigerator, freezer or similar container unless all the locks and doors thereon have been first removed. By-law 1962-80, 7 August, 1962.

Article 2
ENFORCEMENT

617.2.1 Fine - for contravention
Every person who contravenes this Chapter is guilty of an offence and shall, upon conviction thereof, forfeit and pay a penalty as prescribed by section 31 of the Planning Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. P.13. By-law 93-135, 16 August, 1993.

Note: Except where otherwise expressly provided in this Chapter, and pursuant to other provincial statutes, such as the Planning Act, the maximum fine for violation of the Code is specified in section 61 of the Provincial Offences Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. P.33, which indicates that a party guilty of an offence is liable to a fine of not more than five thousand dollars ($5000).
