ARTICLE 4.0 – FOOD HANDLER TRAINING AND CERTIFICATION

4.1 The Medical Officer of Health may accredit any food handler training and certification program upon being satisfied that the program is equivalent to the Peterborough County-City Health Unit’s Food Handler Certification Program, having regard to the standards contained in the “Food Safety Protocol” of the Ontario Public Health Standards, 2008, issued under the Health Protection and Promotion Act, as amended.

4.2 Every provider of a food handler training and certification program seeking accreditation under Article 4.1 shall:

a. Provide the Medical Officer of Health with such information as the Medical Officer of Health considers necessary to evaluate the program; and

b. Pay the prescribed application fee for accreditation.

4.3 Every provider of an accredited program shall provide the Medical Officer of Health with such information as the Medical Officer of Health reasonably considers necessary to:

a. Evaluate, monitor and audit the program, including but not limited to, the lessons, materials, texts, examinations and qualifications of the instructors used in the program; and

b. Determine the validity of food handler certificates issued by the provider including, but not limited to, the attendance records, course submissions, examination results and true copies of the certificates issued.

4.4 The Medical Officer of Health may terminate the accreditation of any food handler training and certification program upon being satisfied that the program has ceased to be equivalent to the Peterborough County-City Health Unit’s food handler certification program or that the program provider has failed to comply with Articles 4.2 or 4.3.
4.5 Unless terminated sooner by the Medical Officer of Health, the accreditation of a food handler training and certification program is valid for five years.

4.6 A provider of an accredited program may issue a food handler certificate to any natural person who has successfully completed an accredited program.

4.7 Unless terminated sooner by the Medical Officer of Health, a food handler certificate is valid for five years from the date of issue.

ARTICLE 5.0 – INSPECTIONS AND ORDERS

5.1 In accordance with the conditions set out in sections 435 and 437 of the Municipal Act, 2001, including the provision of notice to an occupier, an Officer may enter a moderate-risk food premises or a high-risk food premises at any reasonable time for the purpose of carrying out an inspection to determine whether or not the following are being complied with:

a. This By-law;

b. A direction, requirement or order made under this By-law; or

c. An order made under section 431 of the Municipal Act, 2001 in respect of a contravention of this By-law.

5.2 An Officer may, for the purposes of an inspection under Article 5.1:

a. Require the production for inspection of documents or things relevant to the inspection;

b. Inspect and remove documents or things relevant to the inspection for the purpose of making copies or extracts;

c. Require information from any person concerning a matter related to the inspection; or

d. Alone, or in conjunction with a person possessing special or expert knowledge, make examinations or take tests, samples or photographs necessary for the purposes of the inspection.

5.3 An inspection order made under Article 5.1 may be served personally or by registered mail to the last known address of such persons affected by it as the Officer making the order determines. Service by registered mail shall be deemed to have taken place five (5) business days after the date of mailing.

5.4 Where service cannot be given in accordance with Article 5.3, sufficient service is deemed to have taken place when the Officer places a placard containing the order in a conspicuous place on the property where the contravention occurred.

5.5 An Officer may, pursuant to an order under section 438 of the Municipal Act, 2001, undertake an inspection for a purpose described in Article 5.1 and exercise powers described in Article 5.2 where he or she has been prevented or is likely to be prevented from carrying out an inspection under Articles 5.1 and 5.2, provided that:

a. Unless otherwise provided in the order, the conditions set out in section 435 of the Municipal Act, 2001 apply; and
b. In the case of an order authorizing an inspection of a room or place actually being used as a dwelling, the occupier is given notice concerning the inspection in accordance with subsection 438(5) of the Municipal Act, 2001.

5.6 If an Officer is satisfied that a contravention of this By-law has occurred, he or she may make an order requiring the person who contravened the By-law or who caused or permitted the contravention or the owner or occupier of the property on which the contravention occurred to discontinue the contravening activity.

5.7 An order under Article 5.6 shall set out:

a. Reasonable particulars of the contravention adequate to identify the contravention and the location of the property on which the contravention occurred; and

b. The date or dates by which there must be compliance with the order.

5.8 If an Officer is satisfied that a contravention of this By-law has occurred, he or she may make an order requiring the person who contravened the By-law or who caused or permitted the contravention or the owner or occupier of the property on which the contravention occurred to do work to correct the contravention.

5.9 An order under Article 5.8 shall set out:

a. Reasonable particulars of the contravention adequate to identify the contravention and the location of property on which the contravention occurred;

b. The work to be done; and

c. The date or dates by which the work must be done.

5.10 An order to discontinue contravening activity made under Article 5.6 or an order to do work made under Article 5.8 may be served personally or by registered mail to the last known address of:

a. The owner or occupier of the property where the contravention occurred; and

b. Such other persons affected by it as the Officer making the order determines.

Service by registered mail shall be deemed to have taken place five (5) business days after the date of mailing.

5.11 Where service cannot be given in accordance with Article 5.10, sufficient service is deemed to have taken place when the Officer places a placard containing the order in a conspicuous place on the property where the contravention occurred.

ARTICLE 6.0 – ADMINISTRATION AND ENFORCEMENT

6.1 The Medical Officer of Health is authorized to administer and enforce this By-law and has the delegated authority granted by Council to execute the provisions of the By-law, including the imposition of conditions as necessary to ensure compliance with this By-law.
6.2 Fees or charges for services and activities provided under this By-law shall be set and approved by the Board of Health for the Peterborough County-City Health Unit from time to time.

6.3 Unpaid fees or charges set and approved under Article 6.2 constitute a debt to the City and may be added to tax roll and collected in the same manner as municipal taxes.

6.4 The Medical Officer of Health may assign or appoint Officers to enforce this By-law who shall have the authority to:

   a. Carry out inspections;
   b. Make orders to requiring an operator or any person to discontinue activities which contravene this By-law;
   c. Make orders requiring an operator or any person to undertake work to correct contraventions of this By-law; or
   d. Give immediate effect to any order; and
   e. Otherwise enforce this By-law.

6.5 The Medical Officer of Health may assign duties or delegate tasks under this By-law whether in his or her absence or otherwise.

6.6 This By-law may be cited as the “Mandatory Food Handler Certification By-law”.

6.7 If a court declares any provision of this By-law invalid, it is the intention of Council that the remainder of the By-law shall continue to be in force and effect.

ARTICLE 7.0 – PENALTIES

7.1 Any person who contravenes any provision of this By-law is, upon conviction, guilty of an offence and is liable to the penalty imposed by applicable law, which is recoverable pursuant to the Provincial Offences Act:

   a. Upon a first conviction, to the lesser of the then current set fine amount, if any, or an amount not exceeding $500; and
   b. Upon a second conviction to a minimum fine of $500 and a maximum fine of $5,000; and
   c. Upon a third or any subsequent conviction, to a minimum fine of $2,500 and a maximum fine of $25,000.

7.2 Despite Article 7.1, where the person convicted is a corporation, the corporation is liable:

   a. Upon a first conviction, to a minimum fine of $2,500 and a maximum fine of $25,000; and
   b. Upon a subsequent conviction, to a minimum fine of $5,000 and a maximum fine of $50,000.
7.3 At the discretion of the Peterborough County-City Health Unit, charges may be laid for offences committed in contravention of this By-law using the certificate of offence set fine procedure set out under Part 1 of the Provincial Offences Act, R.S.O. 1990, CH. P.33, or any successor legislation, for the offences enumerated in short form in Schedule “A” of this By-law.

7.4 Schedule “A” offences shall not be utilized until the amounts of the fines in Schedule “A” have been set by the Regional Senior Justice for the Superior Court of Ontario.

ARTICLE 8.0 – EFFECTIVE DATE

8.1 Save and except Article 3.1 and 3.2, the By-law shall come into force and effect on the day it is passed and enacted.

8.2 Articles 3.1 and 3.2 of the By-law as it relates to high-risk food premises shall come into force and effect on the 1st day of January 2014.

8.3 Articles 3.1 and 3.2 of the By-law as it relates to moderate-risk food premises shall come into force and effect on the 1st day of January 2015.

By-law read a first, second and third time this 18th day of March, 2013.
